East India Company Records: Macao and Canton: Collection of letters from Macao and Canton written to his wife Anne by Edmund Larken, East India Company Administrator.

[Ms.; English]

EIC 4 LARKEN/1

- 1799-1809

Letter books containing correspondence between Edmund Larken (1766-1831) and his wife Anne.

Edmund Larken was employed by the East India Company and worked in the tea trade. In January 1804 he arrived in China and spent the next four years in Canton and Macao examining and purchasing tea for the Company. The majority of his letters date from this period and the correspondence gives an insight into life in Canton and Macao in the early 1800s and provides evidence of the nature and scale of the tea trade with China. The letters also make passing reference to the war with France.

Edmund Larken married Anne Greaves, the daughter of John Greaves of Tottenham, Middlesex. Anne's letters to her husband principally contain news of family and friends.
